Bank and Trust Company to Open Its Doors on First Busi-

The Richmond Bank and Trust Combanking and financial institution, will banking and financial institution, will throw open its doors for business on the first day of the new year, that is to say on Tucuday, Monday being a kind of holiday.

The new company, or rather the farseeing men who compose the company, were rather lucky in finding a good banking house right to their hand. The National Bank of Virginia some months ago vacated their home at Eleventh and Main Streets, and went up to Minth and Main. This now bank goes right into the old quarters at Eleventh and Main and no big work was required.

The officers of the Richmond Bank and Trust Company are: H. R. Pollard.

and Trust Company are: H. R. Pollard, Jr., president: W. J. Whitehurst, first vice-president; S. T. Beverdige, second vice-president, and Clinton L. Williams, cashler.

ing business men and citizens of the city.

W. J. Whitehurst, first vice-president, will have his office at the bank and will devote his entire attention to the business of the bank. Mr. Whitehurst is one of the best known and most uniformly successful business men of the city, and has a wide business acquaintance.

H. R. Pollard, Jr., president of the new institution, is the senior member of the firm of Pollard & Bagby, real estate agents.

S. T. Beveridge, second vice-president, is one of the large feed dealers of the city, and is a most careful and conservative business man.

Goldsboro, N. C., December 20.—T. H.
Pritchard, of Swansboro, N. C., president, and one of the incorporators of the Goldsboro, Seven Springs & Swansboro Raliroud Company, says it is expected to begin work upon the proposed line from Goldsboro to swansboro, seventy miles, February 1. The route is level, and goes via Seven Springs, Richlands and Jacksonville, N. C. The company was only recently chartered.
